

CALL FOR PAPERS

"International Framework Agreements and Transnational Governance"

2019 Meeting of the HRM Study Group of the ILERA
12th European Congress of the International Labour and Employment Relations Association
(ILERA), Duesseldorf, Germany, 5-7 September 2019

The 2019 meeting of the HRM Study Group of the International Labour and Employment Relations Association (ILERA) will be held during the 12th European Congress of the ILERA in Duesseldorf, Germany (<https://ilera2019.giraweb.de/>).

At this study group meeting we will explore the implications of international framework agreements and transnational governance for industrial relations, human resource management and public policy.

Abstracts and papers are invited on the above topic. We are keen to receive papers utilising a wide range of methodologies. We encourage the submission of theoretical and empirical work, but also the submission of short reports by practitioners and/or policy makers.

The abstract should be around 500 words. The title page should consist of the paper title, name(s) of author(s), institutional affiliation and address, and contact details. Please send the abstract or paper as a Word or 'rtf' file by e-mail to stefan.zagelmeyer@manchester.ac.uk no later than 1 August 2019. A committee will evaluate all submitted abstracts and papers. We would like to request all contributors to pay particular attention to the following aspects when preparing abstracts and papers: (i) make clear references to the theoretical framework of your research and the key literature in relevant debates; (ii) ensure that your research methods are clearly described; and (iii) focus the abstract on the main subject matter of your research.

Acceptance decisions will be communicated by 5 August 2019.
